

Quizlet

NAME _____

3 Matching questions

1. _____ Where did the Battle of Yorktown take place?
2. _____ Why was the Battle of Yorktown (AKA The Siege of Yorktown) important?
3. _____ When did the Yorktown Battle end?

A. The Battle of Yorktown happened in Yorktown, Virginia

B. October, 19, 1781

C. Because The Battle of Yorktown ended in victory for the Americans and Britain realizing that the war is just too costly to continue. This battle was the last recognized large conflict in the Revolutionary war and was the first step King George took in acknowledging the thirteen states' independence.

3 Multiple choice questions

1. General Lord Charles Cornwallis

- A. Who led the British in the Battle of Yorktown in Virginia?
- B. Who led the Americans in the Battle of Yorktown in Virginia?
- C. Who were the participants in the Battle of Yorktown 1781?
- D. Who were the Hessians?

2. September 28, 1781

- A. When did the Yorktown Battle end?
- B. What is the date of the start of the Siege of Yorktown?
- C. Who led the British in the Battle of Yorktown in Virginia?
- D. Who led the Americans in the Battle of Yorktown in Virginia?

3. Hessians is the term given to the German troops contracted for war by the British government.

- A. Who were the participants in the Battle of Yorktown 1781?
- B. Who led the Americans in the Battle of Yorktown in Virginia?
- C. Who were the Hessians?
- D. Who led the British in the Battle of Yorktown in Virginia?

2 True/False questions

1. The British and Hessians were in battle with the Americans and France. → Who were the participants in the 1781?

- True
- False

2. General George Washington

→ Who led the Americans in the Battle of Yorktown in Virginia?

- True
- False